Waterstone Mortgage Names Amy Battin as Branch Manager in Phoenix, Arizona

Battin will lead the newest branch of the Waterstone Mortgage West region

Phoenix, Ariz. (November 2, 2021) – National mortgage lender Waterstone Mortgage Corporation is pleased to announce opening of a new branch in the greater Phoenix area, led by industry veteran Amy Battin.

With more than 20 years of experience in the mortgage lending industry, Battin has worked as a senior processor, loan originator, and sales manager.

“Amy is the perfect addition to our team; her mortgage lending background, effective leadership, enthusiasm for her work, and knowledge of the greater Phoenix market will allow her to thrive in her new role,” says Susan Millspaugh, Waterstone Mortgage Division Executive – West. “I look forward to working with Amy and her team as they help homebuyers achieve their goals.”

Battin and her team members are Arizona natives who know the Phoenix real estate market well. When deciding to join Waterstone Mortgage, they were drawn to the company’s mortgage technology solutions.

“The technology available here at Waterstone Mortgage is definitely making my life easier when it comes to providing service to my clients,” says Battin. “Having instant access to my clients’ loans – no matter where I physically am – is extremely important for me to provide quick and accurate answers and information.”

The new branch office is located at 18001 N 79th Ave #C-62, Glendale, Arizona 85308. Battin currently has a team of three employees, and plans to hire for a variety of Phoenix-based positions – including loan originators.
